Pi Day

We did the math... and the answer was more pie.

Thanks to everyone who stopped by to celebrate Pi Day (3.14) with us at The Upland. Between sweet pies, pizza pies, and great company, it was the perfect equation for a fun afternoon.

We loved seeing everyone come out to grab a slice... or two (or three — we're not counting).

What They're Saying

DK.

"I've lived at The Upland for over three years, and it has consistently exceeded my expectations. The property is well maintained, clean, and offers plenty of parking, including EV charging.

The staff sets this place apart. Tara and Andrew are highly responsive, professional, and genuinely helpful. Maintenance is prompt (also very friendly and genuinely nice guys), and the overall community is respectful and friendly.

Prime location, quality amenities, and reliable management. Easy recommendation!"

Rilora Revival Room

Resident Spotlight: Taylor & Rilora Revival Room

We are so excited to highlight one of our very own neighbors, Taylor, and her boutique wellness business, Rilora Revival Room! If you've been running on empty, Taylor is here to help you reset, recharge, and revive. Located nearby in Rancho Cucamonga, Rilora offers a full wellness reset with services such as IV hydration therapy, GLP-1 weight-loss support, peptides, and microneedling—all designed to help you show up as your best self.

The excitement is just beginning, though: Taylor's new fitness center is officially opening at the end of April! Memberships are already open, so don't wait until the secret is out. Support a fellow resident and lock in your spot now to start your spring season feeling completely refreshed.

Pet Of The Month

Daisy

Meet Adorable Daisy.

Daisy is the undisputed queen of hide-and-seek here at The Upland, a tiny treasure who has mastered the art of being a part-time hider and a full-time cutie. As the smallest of her bunch, she might give you a little chase at first, but she always makes sure to show her affection exactly when it counts. When she isn't tucked away in a clever new hiding spot, you can usually find her soaking up every bit of golden California sunshine or playfully pouncing around with her siblings. She's a sweet, mysterious little soul who reminds us that the best things in life are often worth searching for—so keep your eyes peeled, because you just might find her catching a nap in the most unexpected corner!
